

Pittsburgh Public Schools Translation and Interpretation ServicesPSE (Program for Students with Exceptionalities)

Note to PPS staff: An interpreter must be used to explain this form to families if a translated version does not exist. The interpreter must print their name, sign, and record their affiliation below.

Please indicate the language you prefer PSE documentation. You always maintain the right to change your preferences.

I understand English and do not need document translation or interpretation services.

I prefer for a family member to interpret all documents and attend all meetings.

I want all documents explained to me in my preferred language below through a district interpreter. I do not want translated documents. All communication (phone calls, meeting invitations, etc.) with my family must be through a PPS interpreter.

I want all documentation in my preferred language below and need interpretation for all meetings, phone calls, and related communication.
