

Center for Advanced Studies Summer Reading Requirement

Dear Student and Parent/Guardian,

In alignment with the Pittsburgh Public Schools’ Strategic Plan, to increase proficiency in literacy for all students and to ensure students are equipped with the skills to succeed in college, career and life, students are required to complete the summer reading in preparation for future CAS coursework. This encourages students to continue their analysis of complex literature throughout the summer months, utilizing the skills they have acquired throughout the school year. In addition, the requirement provides students the opportunity to apply 21st Century Skills and to demonstrate their understanding of the world around them. The Summer Reading Requirements align with the thematic essential questions established in the 9th and 10th grade CAS English courses.

Topics and Essential Questions for Literary Analysis

Review the topics and essential questions in the chart below. Then choose one topic of interest and use the pre-selected text provided or choose a reading of your choice. If you choose your own text it must align with one of the topics for your respective grade for the upcoming school year.

9 th Grade, English 1 CAS Topics and Essential Questions	10 th Grade, English 2 CAS Topics and Essential Questions
American Voices: What does it mean to be American?	Inside the Nightmare: In what ways does fear/negative encounters transform or limit experiences?
Survival: What does it take to survive?	Outsiders and Outcasts: Do people need to belong?
The Literature of Civil Rights: How can words inspire change?	Extending Freedom’s Reach: What is the relationship between power and freedom?
Star-Crossed Romances: Do we determine our own destinies?	All that Glitters: What do our possessions reveal about us?
Journeys of Transformation: What can we learn from a journey?	Virtue and Vengeance: What motivates us to forgive?
World’s End: Why do we try to imagine the future	Blindness and Sight: What does it mean to see?

Assignment:

- The student will select a topic of focus from the topics and essential questions listed in the table above. The student will choose reading materials based on the essential question he/she selects, aligned to the reading requirements below.
- The student will develop interview questions and seek multiple perspectives on the selected topic. The student must interview at least 3 people and incorporate the interview materials in his/her essay and presentation.
- The student will complete a literary analysis essay (9th grade: 2-3 pages, 10th grade: 3-5 pages) responding to one of the essential questions listed above (rubric attached), using textual evidence from the texts read aligned to the topic: typed, double spaced, 1-inch margins, MLA format, title page, bibliography, 12pt font. The 1st version of the essay will be submitted to the teacher by September 20, 2021. The final version of the essay should be completed by the end of the 1st quarter.
- The student will create a product, due September 20, 2021 (refer to the Product Planning Guide):
 - Power Point presentations alone, will not satisfy the product component of Summer Reading.
 - Students can complete the project in small groups however, each group member is responsible for his/her own essay. There should not be more than 3 people in a small group.
- The student(s) will present their project during the unit of study throughout the school year. Presentations should be 5-7 minutes long. (Please refer to the Creativity and Innovation Rubric for PBL.)

Pearson Realize – Directions to access the pre-selected text aligned to the thematic topics and essential questions. You do not have to read the pre-selected text. You can select a text of your own.

- Students have access to the Realize portal through Clever, using their PPS username and password. Students will enter Realize and click “Browse” and scroll down to “myPerspectives Plus ELA Grades 6-12”. From there, the students will select “Digital Library”. Students have free access to books listed by title alphabetically.

- The suggested unit alignment is included in the table below, but students may be able to align the text with another unit topic.
- Non-PPS students enrolling in PPS the fall of 2020-2021 can access the account using the following login:
