13. (10 Min.) William C. Wade – CEO Update:
  • William C. Wade – Spoke about making progress and making changes aligned with the results they are finding within the classroom; this is a turnaround year. Anticipates more turnover, due to the high level of expectations to move the students. Interviewing for K-2 principal at 5 pm on October 24th. Parents, community, staff and board members to meet final candidates in an open forum.
  • Stephanie Faith – Spoke about Rachel Bodenlos assisting with fall benchmarks: math are lower than projected and reading is on point with projection. Using the math specialist to help math progress. Data teams have been developed through grade level meetings and they discuss how students need to progress. Friday is a professional development day and teachers will use progress monitoring to see how to help students progress. See Fall Data handout.
  • Seth Springer – Operations: security, met with Pittsburgh Police, and others. Need to purchase Go Bags for police to use when they come into the building. The Go Bags will be housed in each classroom. Thursday’s incident, no one entered the building. Our security guard identified one of the students which lead to their capture. There are four cameras outside of the building that caught footage of the incident. Misinformation was given out by someone internally which upset some parents. We have corrected all areas and put additional procedures in place.
  • Kolicia Davis – Stated that communication to the Board and to legal needs to immediate in any future situation. Jerry Cozewith wants a communication text message and email sent to the Board members.
