Currently, all drug offenses result in expulsion. For regular education students, offenses include drugs, weapons, and serious assaults, or a pattern of disruptive behavior. For special education students, additional offenses apply. The process involves a school packet, packet approval, recommendation by an independent hearing officer, and board approval. Expulsions can be for weapons, drugs, and assaults. AEDY placement includes Clayton for disruptive behavior only. SAC includes all students for drugs, weapons, and assaults, with Clayton for weapons and assaults.
Proposed Changes Regarding Handling of Drugs

• Allow for differentiation in response to marijuana and paraphernalia drug offenses.
• Enable graduated responses based on the severity of an offense, i.e. type of drug, quantity, and whether the infraction is a first-time or subsequent offense.
