Dancing Dragons and Drumbats: Pittsburgh Morrow and Pittsburgh Perry Unite for Lunar New Year Spectacular

Experience the Vibrant Fusion as Two PPS Schools Come Together in a Joyous Celebration of Lunar New Year!

WHAT: Pittsburgh Morrow Elementary School and Pittsburgh Perry High School are coming together to celebrate the Lunar New Year in a spectacular fashion! Perry High School's Storybook Warriors will be reading to students and showcasing an elaborate 8-foot Chinese dragon to Morrow Elementary. The visit will include Perry's Drum Line and Marching Band, students from Morrow's third, fourth, Autistic Support, and Kindergarten classes who will join in the festivities by participating in a Dragon Dance around the school building for a spectacular finale.

WHERE: Pittsburgh Morrow Elementary School
1611 Davis Ave, Pittsburgh, Pa 15212

WHEN: Thursday, February 15, 2024, at 12:15 PM

WHY: This collaboration between two Pittsburgh Public Schools exemplifies the spirit of community, cultural appreciation, and positive student engagement. By coming together to celebrate the Lunar New Year, Pittsburgh Morrow and Pittsburgh Perry honor cultural understanding, unity, and joy within their school communities.

Members of the media are invited to attend.
