Student Voice and Arts Education Department Collaborate to Elevate Youth Stories and Truths

PPS Student Voice finds new ways to express their creative freedom while promoting community involvement.

WHAT: Student Voice, in collaboration with the Arts Education Department, is proud to announce an event dedicated to celebrating and amplifying the narratives of our young people. Inspired by the words of Dr. Gholdy Muhammad, the event aims to advance happiness by elevating the beauty in humanity and embracing truthful representations of diverse voices.

The event will feature a curated selection of artwork representing the rich tapestry of youth experiences and perspectives. Through visual and performing arts, attendees will have the opportunity to engage with the creativity and authenticity of Pittsburgh's young talents. Students sharing their art using their voices will begin at 7:30 in the Pierce Studio.

WHEN: Tuesday, April 26, 2024
5:30 PM-10:00 PM

WHERE: Trust Arts Education Center,
805 Liberty Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15222

WHY: PPS Student Voice is a platform within the Pittsburgh Public Schools system dedicated to amplifying the voices and perspectives of students. Through various initiatives and collaborations, PPS Student Voice empowers students to share their stories, experiences, and truths, fostering a culture of inclusivity and authentic expression within the school community.

Members of the media are invited to attend.
