Nearly 600 Student Leaders from Elementary to High School To Attend Pittsburgh Public Schools Student Envoy Summit

WHAT: Close to 600 student leaders will head to the Pittsburgh Greenway Professional Development Center for the two-day Student Envoy Summit. The Summit creates space for elementary, middle, and high school student leaders from 30 schools to come together and learn from each other to sharpen their leadership skills. As part of the Summit, students will participate in breakout sessions, school team reflection, and poster presentations on completed projects. The Summit will take place over two days, with about 300 students each day.

WHEN:

Tuesday, March 21, 2023	Wednesday, March 22, 2023
Opening Ceremony: 10 AM	Opening Ceremony: 10:30 AM
5 Secrets Team Building- House of Cards: 10:15 AM	5 Secrets Team Building- House of Cards: 10:45 AM
Poster Presentations: 10:45- 11:25 AM	Poster Presentations: 11:15- 11:55 AM

WHERE: Pittsburgh Greenway Professional Development Center
1400 Crucible Street, Pittsburgh PA 15205

WHY: The Student Envoy Project, held in partnership with the Efficacy Institute since 2015, mobilizes students by engaging them as active and essential partners in improving their academic performance and impacting classroom and school culture. In participating schools, Student Envoys train to lead and support cultural change with their peers. This year's Summit will welcome Wilkinsburg's Turner Elementary School students to support the transition of 6th graders to Pittsburgh Westinghouse in the fall.
