MONOLOGUE & DESIGN COMPETITION

The August Wilson New Voices Competition (AWNV) is a city-wide competition open to all Pittsburgh high school students in honor of the late Pulitzer Prize winning playwright, August Wilson. To participate, students engage in competition by either performing a 1-3 minute monologue or creating a visual design presentation from one of the ten plays in August Wilson's Century Cycle. The top three students from the Pittsburgh Regional Finals receive a cash prize, and are granted the opportunity to compete at the AWNV National competition with students from across the country.
