Faison Facility Closed Due to Positive COVID-19 Cases
Grab and Go Site Closed

PITTSBURGH November 16, 2020 – Beginning today, the Pittsburgh Faison K-5 facility is closed after two staff members report testing positive for COVID-19 over the weekend. The building will be cleaned and closed until Monday, November 30. No staff should be in the building until Monday, November 30. Because of the closure, the Grab and Go distribution site located at the school will close. Students and families can visit Pittsburgh Westinghouse or Pittsburgh Student Achievement Center for Grab and Go breakfast and lunch.
