Character: Gratefulness

Gratitude is one of the sweet shortcuts to finding peace of mind and happiness inside. No matter what is going on outside of us, there’s always something we could be grateful for.

- Barry Neil Kaufman

I am grateful for all of my problems. After each one was overcome, I became stronger and more able to meet those that were still to come. I grew in all my difficulties.

- James Penney

National Junior Honor Society
What is National Junior Honor Society?

• National Junior Honor Society, aka NJHS, is an international student organization that consists of chapters in middle and high schools across the world. This organization recognizes students who exemplify the “five pillars” of leadership, citizenship, character, service, and scholarship.

• NJHS serves a prerequisite to students who intend to join the National Honor Society (post High School).
The 5 Pillars of NJHS

Everyday Scholarship, Service, Leadership, Character, and Citizenship

• Everyday Scholarship is a commitment to learning and growing on an educational path. It means making the most of the educational opportunities provided and seeking out learning, not only in school or similar settings, but also personally. Everyday Scholarship doesn’t require a minimum GPA—but it does require effort. More importantly, it stems from a desire to contribute to this world in a positive way by building on one’s own knowledge, skills, and talent through different experiences.

• Everyday Service is seeking out and engaging in meaningful service. It calls for a service mindset, the desire to seek opportunities to help others as well as acts of service. As Honor Society students, many young teens and young adults at local chapters are required to meet minimum service participation requirements for service.

• Everyday Leadership builds on Everyday Service. Everyday Leadership is carrying oneself with dignity and taking ownership and responsibility for one’s own actions and participation. Being a public speaker, playing quarterback, or having an official title is not required for Everyday Leadership. Everyday Leadership means being an agent—someone who takes action and responsibility—of your own pathway.

• Everyday Character is valuing diverse cultures and building relationships that reflect love of self but also concern for others. There are endless attributes to good character: perseverance, respect, integrity, honesty, sacrifice—the list goes on. Good and noble character is a high calling. Everyday Character is not about praiseworthy or blameworthy behavior but the personal commitment to ethical and compassionate decision making that affects oneself and others.

• Everyday Citizenship is accepting one’s place and role in the community and seeking to understand the concerns and strengths of that community. Community includes but is not limited to neighborhoods, tribes, and local and regional districts. For young people in particular, Everyday Citizenship is an opportunity to be educated about and to demonstrate care for the issues that impact those who are citizens in their shared community.
• Must be a student in 6th, 7th, or 8th grade at Pittsburgh Allegheny 6-8

• Must have a cumulative GPA to 3.4 to receive an invite or recommendation

• Complete the application packet (Students must have teacher recommendations, write a simple essay, and have proof of some of the 5 pillars)

• Contact Mrs. Castillo to express interest in NJHS at athuransky1@pghschols.org
• We currently have 8 members. The students meet every 2\textsuperscript{nd} Tuesday of each month for a period.

• Our NJHS students are permitted to wear red shirts in additional to the regular uniform attire.

• Students recently participated in a community clean-up and a canned goods drive. They are actively searching for other fundraisers and service opportunities.

• Please contact Mrs. Castillo if you’re interested or know someone who may be interested in being a guest speaker.

• The new National Junior Honor Society Induction will be in May (TBD)
