Westinghouse High School Cosmetology Academy to host “Hair Extravaganza” Hair Show

Pittsburgh, October 23, 2006 – The Cosmetology Academy at Westinghouse High School will showcase an array of hair styles created by Westinghouse cosmetology students at its Hair Extravaganza: Hair Show. Now in its second year, this popular event will take place Thursday, November 9, 2006 in the Westinghouse High School Auditorium, located at 1101 North Murtland Avenue, Homewood from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

This year’s show will feature a Hair Braiding and Quick Weave competition which will be judged by community salon owners. In addition, attendees will be entertained by a student produced dance segment. Admission to the event is $3.00 if purchased in advance and $6.00 at the door. Proceeds from the event will be used to cover cost necessary to send the students to the yearly Bronner Brothers Hair Show in Baltimore, Maryland.

The Cosmetology Academy provides the opportunity for students to learn skills and perform procedures necessary for obtaining a cosmetology and/or manicuring license from the Pennsylvania State Board of Cosmetology.

Cosmetology Academy students staff the Westinghouse Bulldog Clinic, where members of the community can receive cosmetology services at moderate prices. The Clinic is open to the public every Thursday from 12:30 – 2:30 p.m.
