Bomb Threat Prompts Evacuation of Pittsburgh Brashear and South Hills 6-8

PITTSBURGH, October 8, 2014 –Pittsburgh Brashear High School and Pittsburgh South Hills 6-8 have been evacuated as school and city officials respond to a bomb threat called into the school this morning. Due to the amount of time it will take to search each facility, students and staff of Pittsburgh Brashear have been evacuated to Pittsburgh Carrick High School. Students and staff of Pittsburgh South Hills have been evacuated to Pittsburgh Langley K-8.

Parents have been notified of the threat and evacuation via the District's phone notification system. Parents and families of Pittsburgh Brashear and South Hills students may pick up their child from the evacuation site with photo identification. All other students will be transported home at the end of the day.
