Pittsburgh Dilworth Celebrates 100 Years of Educating Local Children

PITTSBURGH, October 21, 2015 — Pittsburgh Dilworth is hosting a series of events to celebrate their centennial. The East End will hold Pittsburgh Dilworth 100th Year Celebration: A Homecoming later this week.

“As Pittsburgh Dilworth celebrates this milestone, we want family, friends, and community leaders to be involved. We are proud that for the past century our school has been a leader in educating and encouraging student success. We are committed to continuing the legacy of Pittsburgh Dilworth,” said Dr. Monica Lamar, Principal.

This two-day celebration will highlight some of Pittsburgh Dilworth’s greatest success stories. Please see below a detailed schedule of events:

Thursday, October 22, 2015

Pittsburgh Dilworth (6200 Stanton Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15206)

5:30-6:00 PM Dr. Ben Carson Reading Nook Grand Opening

6:00-6:30 PM Open House/School Tour

6:30-8:00 PM Student Performance

Pittsburgh Dilworth is the only district school to receive a scholarship from the Carson Foundation to encourage students to read and achieve their 50-book goal. The Ben Carson Reading Room Project awarded $15,000 to Pittsburgh Dilworth to help furnish the room and purchasing of books and materials to encourage the students to read. The theme for the Pittsburgh Dilworth Reading Nook is The Star Lounge: It's out of this world! A small reception will follow the grand opening.

Friday, October 23, 2015

An Evening with the Arts

Pittsburgh Obama (515 N. Highland Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15206)

5:30-6:30 PM Reception with Silent Art Auction

6:30-8:00 PM Concert

The concert will include vocal and instrumental performances by current and former students. Special guests include Superintendent Linda Lane and Councilwoman Deborah Gross, who will present the school with a proclamation.

Pittsburgh Dilworth PreK-5 is a traditional magnet school with an emphasis on arts integration and humanities for all subject areas. The school’s goal is to help students understand how the world and lives are interconnected through their academic, arts, and humanities experiences.
