City League Coaches Selects 2020 All-City Football Team

Donta Green of Pittsburgh Westinghouse Named Coach of the Year

PITTSBURGH December 16, 2020 – This football season was like no other, with student-athletes playing in a pandemic with limited fans, temperature checks, and social distancing. Today, Pittsburgh Public Schools City League football coaches announce the 2020 All-City Football team, All-City Academic Team, Player of the Year, and Coach of the Year. Pittsburgh Westinghouse Head Coach Donta Green won Coach of the Year after winning his second consecutive city league football championship.

“It took a lot of resiliency from our players and coaches to stay dialed in week by week with daily uncertainties. I am extremely blessed with the opportunity to coach these young men,” said Donta Green.

One of his players, senior Darius Bruce, earned Player of the Year. Darius, who picked up his first football when he was seven years old, is looking forward to playing at the next level- college. Darius currently has more than 10 provisional offers, including letters from Saint Francis University, Central State University, University of Toledo, and Fairmont State University.

Four student-athletes with the highest grade point average and two years of lettering were named to the All-City Academic Team: Robert Arms (USO), Donte Douglas (Brashear), Eric McClung (Allderdice), and Shaun Robinson (Westinghouse).

Each City League coach nominated players from their team for consideration. Coaches reviewed the nominations and voted for the top two players in each position. Coaches were not permitted to vote for their team’s players.

“The All-City selection is a group of talented, well-respected student-athletes who embody healthy competition, sportsmanlike conduct, and balance school and sports well,” said Karen Arnold, Director of Athletics. “Coach Green’s colleagues selected him as Coach of the Year because he leads, on and off the field, with scholarship and community.”
